

NATS Gets Social!

Thursday, 27 January 2011 11:16

Have you noticed? National Association of Teachers of Singing just added new social networking icons to the website (on the upper right corner of the home page and below the left column navigation on all pages). Now you can interact with NATS and fellow members on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, and LinkedIn.

On Facebook, we have three pages: the NATS Company Page is one that you can “Like,” the NATS Staff Profile page is one that you can “Add as Friend,” and the NATS Group Page (for active NATS members only) is one that you can “Join.”

You can “follow” NATS on Twitter so that we can follow you back and see what our members are up to in the Twitterverse.

Very soon, we will be posting video clips from previous NATS National Conferences on the NATS YouTube channel. You can “subscribe” to the channel and/or become a “friend” of the channel.

If you are on LinkedIn (a professional networking site), you can “follow” the NATS Company Page. As an active member of NATS, you can “join” the NATS LinkedIn Group.

We welcome your interaction on all of these websites. Let us know how you participate on them. Please use them to talk with us about what you think about NATS in general and, more specifically, about topics related to vocal instruction.

As NATS creates profiles on other social media websites, we’ll let you know here on the NATS Home page. Remember, you can receive the most current news that is posted to the NATS Home page by subscribing to the NATS RSS News Feed.

Do you have any suggestions or ideas for NATS to improve our ability to connect with you on the web? Feel free to get in touch with Lynne O’Connor, our Marketing and Communications Administrator, by emailing her directly: lynne@nats.org.

Founded in 1944, National Association of Teachers of Singing, Inc. (NATS) is the largest professional association of teachers of singing in the world with more than 7,000 members in the United States, Canada, and over twenty-five other countries. NATS offers a variety of lifelong learning experiences to its members: workshops, intern programs, master classes, and conferences. Students of NATS members have access to one of the organization's most widely recognized activities: Student Auditions. They have the opportunity, along with members, to compete at a national level through National Association of Teachers of Singing Artist Awards (NATSAA). In 2012, NATS will begin auditioning for the first National Musical Theater Competition (NMTC). Final Rounds for NATSAA and NMTC will take place at the NATS 52nd National Conference in Orlando. NATS supports the growth and enrichment of its members through the publication of Journal of Singing, a scholarly journal comprised of articles, written by distinguished experts, on all aspects of singing and the teaching of singing.
